

The Music Ministry at Greenwood Forest is pleased to present this Music Ministry Handbook 2008-2009. You will find here schedules for special events, rehearsals and worship participation for each of the choirs and ensembles at GFBC. For up to date information please refer to The Grapevine, the monthly ministry newsletter, and online at <http://gfbccary.org/music/>. I hope that you will use this booklet as a guide throughout the year so that you can be an integral part of our ministry through music and worship.

The production of this Music Ministry Handbook has taken countless hours, and my appreciation goes out to our very talented music and administrative staff who have published this booklet. It is my prayer that all who seek to develop their abilities, give expression to their creativity, and offer their gifts to God, will find here an opportunity to be fulfilled.

Sincerely,

David C. Mellnik, Minister of Music
